$10,000 DAMAGE SUIT IS FILED IN LOCAL COURT

Walter D. Hines, Director of Railroads, Named As One Defendant

FLETCHER BLAIR FILES ACTION FOR DIVORCE

George D. Lewis Made Defendant in Suit For Money Wills Are Filed

Walter D. Hines, director general of railroads and express companies, is named as one of the defendants in a suit filed in the Knox county court of common pleas Monday.

The suit was filed by Harry C. Monroe against the American Railway Express Co. and Walter D. Hines. The plaintiff asks for damages in the sum of $10,000 for personal injuries which he is alleged to have received while employed as a driver for the Wells-Fargo Express Co., later consolidated into the American Railway Express Co.

The plaintiff alleges in his petition that he was injured while loading express at the Baltimore & Ohio railroad station and that his injuries were caused by the damaged condition of a wagon and a truck owned by the express company. The plaintiff states that he was injured about the chest and arms and that his injuries are permanent. The attorney for the plaintiff is Lot C. Stillwell.

Asks Divorce—

Fletcher Blair has commenced an action for divorce in the court of common pleas against Margaret Blair. The plaintiff states they were married January 31, 1918, and that no children were born to them. The plaintiff states that the defendant abandoned him and has gone to live with her daughter. He also alleges she has been guilty of gross neglect. William A. Hosack represents the plaintiff.

Action for Money—

Philip D. Phillips has commenced a suit in the court of common pleas against George D. Lewis, in which he asks for a judgment in the sum of $150. The suit is based on a promissory note, given by the defendant on August 31, 1912. The attorney for the plaintiff is Frank O. Levering.

The last will and testament of Silas Roberson, late of Centerburg, has been filed in probate. By the terms of the will the testator gives all his property to his friend, Harry Bell, to be held in trust for his daughter, Martha Dove. Upon her death the property goes to the testator's nephews, Ray Roberson and Frank L. Roberson, share and share alike. Harry Bell is named as the trustee and executor. The will was signed January 26, 1918, in the presence of Maude Cooper and J. P. Barry.

The Rush Will—

The last will of William Rush, late of Morris township, has been filed in probate. The testator gives to his wife, Lavina A. Rush, all his property and also a one-half interest in the proceeds of the farm. To his daughter, Winifred Rush, he gives $1,200; to his daughter, Lucretia Douglas, $1,000; to his son, Clarence Rush, he cancels a promissory note in the sum of $480. Clyde Rush is given all the farm machinery, upon condition that he pay the bequest to the two daughters mentioned above. Clyde E. Rush is given all the real estate at the death of the testator's wife. Clyde E. Rush is also named as the executor. The will was signed April 27, 1906, in the presence of O. G. Daniels and M. M. Murphy.

Application Made—

Application for a citation to take or renounce the administration of the estate of Thomas B. Auten has been filed in the probate court of Knox county. A citation has been issued and given to the sheriff to serve.

Trustee Appointed—

STATE MEETING CLOSES HERE ON SUNDAY EVENING

Officers Elected By Young Women and Men of Sunday School

SHIELDS AWARDED FOR THE BEST WORK

Next Place of Meeting Left To The State Sunday School Officers

The annual conference of the young peoples' branch of the Ohio State Sunday School association closed in Mt. Vernon Sunday night, after a three days' session.

The following officers were elected for the coming year:

Young Women
President—Elsie Triplet, Akron.
Vice President—Dallas Sisk, Napoleon.

Secretary—Josephine Alberts, Dayton.

Treasurer—Zita Coalton, Crooksville.

Young Men
President—Gerald Kahler, Youngstown.

Vice President—John Powell, McCutcheonville.

Secretary—William Howard, Dayton.

Treasurer—Richard Lowery, Napoleon.

Interesting sessions were held Saturday morning, afternoon and evening and on Sunday three sessions were held.

On Saturday afternoon an interesting out-door meeting was held at Riverside park where physical activities were discussed.

The shield for the best physical activity among the girls and young women was presented the Wyandotte delegates, while the shield for the best physical activity among the boys was presented the Medina county delegates.

On Saturday night shields were presented for the best county work as follows:

Henry county for the best work among the girls and Montgomery county for the best work among the boys.

On account of the few delegates in attendance, the two banquets arranged for Saturday evening were combined into one at the Church of Christ. Interesting toasts were given by several persons.

The sessions were brought to a close Sunday evening at the Vine street Church of Christ, with the singing of "Blest Be The Tie That Binds," and the benediction by Rev. J. A. Long.

The State Sunday School officers will decide where the next state conference will be held.

It consisted of 18 cars of fat hogs from the Monte Vista sections, six more cars of hogs brought in by the San Luis Central, and 19 cars of potatoes. The hogs were worth about $3,000 a carload, and the potatoes $550 a car.

MARY MILES MINTER AT LYRIC TUESDAY

The mere mention of the fact that Mary Miles Minter is to be shown at the Lyric theatre, Tuesday, in a new comedy-drama, is sufficient notification to movie fans of this city to prepare to be present.

Mary Miles Minter without a doubt is one of the most popular girls of the silent drama. A new vehicle in which she will be presented here is entitled "The Eyes of Julia Deep," a five-reel comedy-drama produced by the American Film Co. Inc. Movie fans love Mary Miles Minter on the screen, but many of them do not know what she does off the screen. Listen!

She likes to knit for the soldiers.

She likes to read the novels of Sir Walter Scott.

She likes to drive her own car up and down the hills of sunny California.

Best of all, she likes all letters of encouragement she has received from hundreds of thousands of movie fans in all parts of the world.

Changes in Personnel at Ringwalt's New Faces in Old Familiar Places

READY-TO-WEAR DEPARTMENT

MISS EDITH MELICK brings to the Ready-to-Wear Department the same enthusiasm, buying ability and pleasant personality she showed for so many years in charge of the Corset Department.

Mrs. Cooper's host of friends, as well as ourselves, regret her resignation; but those who know Miss Melick will have confidence in her ability, and those who don't know her, we invite to meet her, and see for themselves.

CORSET DEPARTMENT

MISS BELLE BARKER, who has had the Hosiery Department in charge since she came to Ringwalt's ten years ago, will take over the Corset Department. She'll have ample experience to give the high service the department is noted for and her judgment can well be trusted.

Of course she'll still have Modart Corsets.

HOSIERY DEPARTMENT

MISS OLA TAYLOR, a newcomer in our organization, but not a novice in serving the public, will have charge of the Hosiery Department. She'll have your size in your favorite hose you've been buying from Ringwalt's—just when you want it.

109 East High street.

The United Prayer Band will meet at 2 o'clock Sunday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Hastings, 216 E. Hamtramck street.

The annual reunion of the teachers and pupils of Weaver school will be held at the school house in Liberty township Saturday, June 28. Everyone is asked to come and meet their old school mates and enjoy the picnic dinner and to talk of other years.

The Congregational Sunday school and church will hold their annual picnic at Riverside park Wednesday afternoon, June 25. They will meet at the church at 1 p. m. Conveyances will be furnished for all. Everybody come and bring well filled baskets. Supper will be served at 6 o'clock.
